

Abram Nesbitt, Jr.

R. F. Walsh, V.P.

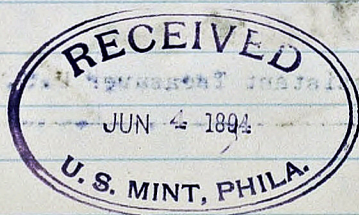

E. W. Mulligan, Cash.

Second National Bank.

U.S. DEPOSITORY

CAPITAL,
$ 450,000.00.SURPLUS,
$ 125,000.00.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa. June 1 1894

Hon. Asst. Treasurer, U. S.,
New York City,
Dear Sir:Will you please be so kind as to tell me how to dispose of plugged coins set
for or to bullion.Very Respy,
Will A. Billings

B. 551

BILLINGS, W.P.,
Second National Bank,
Wilkes Barre, Pa.,
June 1, 1894.

Wishes to know how to dispose of plugged and mutilated coins.

Office of
ASSISTANT TREASURER U.S.,
New York, N. Y., June 2, 1894.

Respectfully referred to the Superintendent, Mint of the United States, Philadelphia, Pa.
Pa., in the opinion that under Department circular No. 15, of 1892, some provision is made for the purchase of these coins.
If this is no longer in force,
please advise this office.

M. J. Mulleman
Acting Assistant Treasurer U.S.

Received. June 3. '94

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 186

Second National Bank.
Wilkes Barre, Pa.
June 1, 1894

Hon. Asst. Treasurer U.S.
New York City

Dear Sir: -

Will you please be so kind as to tell me how to dispose of plugged coins ect. for or as bullion.

Very Respy.
Will P. Billings

[Typed on back:]

Office of Assistant Treasurer U.S.,
New York, N.Y., June 2, 1894

Respectfully referred to the Superintendent, Mint of the United States, Philadelphia, Pa., in the opinion that under Department circular No. 15, of 1892, some provision is made for the purchase of these coins. If this is no longer in force, please advise this office.

M.L. Mulleman
Acting Assistant Treasurer U.S.